

Bloomberg Businessweek

January 9-15, 2012

Markets & Finance

Bid & Ask

1 Italy's biggest bank, UniCredit, will raise $9.8 billion by selling shares at $2.51 each, which it said is a 43 percent discount from the Jan. 3 closing price, excluding the value of rights to additional purchases that come with the shares.

2 French oil company Total acquired a $2.3 billion holding in Ohio's natural-gas-rich Utica shale region from Chesapeake Energy and EnerVest.

3 China Petrochemical will pay $900 million for a one-third stake in five Devon Energy exploratory oil projects in Louisiana, Oklahoma, Michigan, Colorado, and Wyoming.

4 Canadian crude producer Athabasca Oil Sands will sell its remaining interest in the MacKay River oil-sands project to PetroChina for $674 million.

5 Soho China, the No. 1 developer in Beijing's central business district, is buying a $632 million stake in a site on Shanghai's historic Bund that's partly owned by Greentown China Holdings.

6 3M, the maker of Post-it Notes and Scotch tape, will acquire Avery Dennison's office-supplies business for $550 million, bolstering its lineup with products including Marks-A-Lot pens.

7 Greece's Hellenic Telecommunications Organization (OTE) is selling a 20 percent stake in the Serb national fixed-line and mobile-service provider back to Telekom Srbija for $492 million.

8 Sierra Nevada Corp. and Brazil-based Embraer won a $355 million contract from the U.S. Air Force to supply Afghanistan with 20 planes.

9 Manhattan's biggest office landlord, SL Green Realty, is buying the Harper-Collins Building on East 53rd Street for about $265 million, say two people with knowledge of the deal.

10 The developer of skyscraper One57 is asking $110 million for a six-bedroom penthouse overlooking Central Park. That price would be a record for a single Manhattan residence.